The New Mexico Museum of Art is a sublime location for an enchanted wedding, a cocktail party on the garden patio, lunch in a courtyard of sculpture, or a seminar in a historic room. From informal to elegant, intimate to grand, historic to contemporary, the halls of the New Mexico Museum of Art provide a location of splendor and sophistication. Built in 1917 and inspired by ancient Spanish Colonial adobe churches, the New Mexico Museum of Art in Santa Fe is regarded as an icon of Pueblo Revival style.

The New Mexico Museum of Art is on the Plaza in the heart of downtown Santa Fe.

New Mexico Museum of Art

St. Francis Auditorium

This venue remains the centerpiece of Santa Fe's cultural and social life as a community space for up to 450. The immense hall with wooden pews presents great murals of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of Santa Fe, and the historical McNary pipe organ. St. Francis Auditorium is ideal for large and small weddings, funerals, concerts, lectures, recitals or meetings on the stage itself.

Courtyard

This elegant, picturesque garden courtyard with spacious covered portals bedecked with murals and a fountain is perfect for celebrations for up to 125.

East or West Sculpture Garden

Each area contains traditional and contemporary sculpture encircled by adobe walls for up to 200.

Women's Board Room

Original to the museum, this interior, in the true style of northern New Mexico, accommodates up to 50.

Museum Lobby

The lobby, with authentic, hand-carved vigas and a latilla ceiling, can accommodate up to 75 for cocktail parties or sit-down dinners.
