COLL 0032: Lucy R. Lippard Collection

Provenance:

Scope and Content

The Lucy R. Lippard Collection is comprised of materials donated by Lucy R. Lippard to the museum in various increments from approximately 1999 to the present. The original donation consisted of the materials that were in a traveling exhibition held at this museum in 1998 called Sniper's Nest : Art that has Lived with Lucy R. Lippard. The collection includes artists' books, comics, exhibition catalogs, periodicals, correspondence, posters, and other ephemera. These materials document the work of artists who were influenced by and/or friends with Lucy Lippard, many of whose works are in the museum's art collection. Information concerning a single artist may be found in the artists' books series, the comics series and the resumes. Series VI consists of materials written by Lippard collected by the New Mexico Museum of Art. It is subdivided into periodicals, exhibition catalogs and books. This series is arranged chronologically when dates are known.

Lippard made additional donations of material to this collection in 2023 including her files on New Mexico artists and two record cartons of artists' books.

Biographical Note

Lucy R. Lippard (b. 1937) is an American art critic, writer, activist, and curator. She earned her BA from Smith College in 1958 and her MA in Art History from New York University in 1962, the same year she started working as an art critic. By 1966, Lippard had started organizing gallery shows, introducing wider audiences to process and conceptual art. Additionally, Lippard worked with artists to improve their living conditions and to give them more say in the way their works were shown.

Lippard is the co-founder of several publications, including Printed Matter and Heresies, and she has been involved in the founding and promotion of several activist artists' organizations such as Heresies, Political Art Documentation/Distribution, the Artworkers Coalition, Women's Action Coalition, Women's Art Registry, and others. She has lived in Galisteo, New Mexico since 1992.

Separated Materials

1 rare book owned by Lippard, shelved 769.92 GRAN 1989 in archives annex

Related Materials

Information about the exhibition Sniper's Nest : Art that has Lived with Lucy R. Lippard may be found with the installation photographs and exhibition files. Additional publications that Lippard contributed to may be found in the museum library. An oral history with Lippard was recorded in April 2024 and can be found in the Off-Center Oral History Collection.

Many of the artists in this collection, as well as Lippard, have biographical files in the library.
